GET READY

Are you ready for the love of your life?
Love is ready and waiting for you.
It is waiting for every one of us!

Perhaps you are like me and have held out hope for great love with the belief that surely it will come. This state of being is often accompanied with a frustrating maze through which to walk. Searching and searching, you may encounter only walls, stalls, blind entryways, and dead ends. These might include people, jobs, or opportunities that don't lead you where you want to go. A promising avenue leads to yet another dark alley. Seemingly alone, the exhaustion and frustration of the searching may render you in a pool of your own tears, crying out, "Where are you?" "Why can't I find you?" This is the voice that cries out in the wilderness. The response is to make straight a highway to God.

It seems I swam in that pool of tears for so long

*As a center point of Love,
I see and experience the presence and power of God in every person, creature and circumstance.*

We are all One.

How does one go about having everything in life—abundance that fills the body, soul and mind? This rich jewel explains that prosperity, in all forms, begins with connecting to the infinite creative force that lies in our own hearts. Discover how to broadcast your wants and needs to the world, how to change from the outer world of appearance to the inner world of creation and alignment—into that place anchoring your body and your life.

The most important step on the spiritual journey is learning how to move into the heart. Jane not only shares her journey with us, she beautifully and profoundly guides us along the path into our own hearts as well. A Change of Heart comes from the heart.

How is it that so much wisdom can be contained in one little book? There is such a light in my heart, filled with hope at the truth and inspiration that love awaits me.
